

For Immediate Release

05/27/2008

Contact: Liz Walker

626.712.9061

lizwalkerpr@gmail.com

Kim Kardashian Recruits Handmade GALLERIES LA to Exact Revenge

Sherman Oaks, CA ... Handmade GALLERIES LA unwittingly became the source of contention within the Kardashian household when Kris mistakenly attempts to sell copies of Kim's private calendar at the popular retail boutique in Sherman Oaks. When Kim discovers the personal gift she created for boyfriend Reggie Bush, has been posted for sale at Handmade GALLERIES LA, she immediately descends upon the store to purchase the entire inventory. In order to get revenge on Kris, Kim returns to Handmade GALLERIES LA to display a very large, very embarrassing photo of her Mom. The episode "Keeping up with the Kardashians: Kim's Calendar" is currently airing on E! Entertainment Television.

Handmade GALLERIES LA is a light, airy boutique, bustling with the individual works of nationally recognized and local established artists. These artists feature handmade and manufactured pieces, unique collectibles, fun erotica, trendy new items and holiday gifts. Unique handbags and dishes are currently among the hottest selling items. Fun baby clothes and accessories will be the hit of any shower. The boutique has been owned and operated by Andy Spyros since 1995. The entrepreneurial mom of two began her retail career in Chicago at the famed I Magnum department store. She then relocated to Los Angeles where she worked in law and launched the local Limited Express flagship locations in downtown and Santa Monica. Ms. Spyros is a graduate of University of Michigan Business School, and currently resides in the San Fernando Valley with her husband and two children.

###

www.handmadeGALLERIESLA.com

www.officialkimkardashian.com

